RE: Opportunity to Intervene: SEC Appeal for Revised Class II Air Quality Operating Permit AP2992-1473

Dear Mr. Soule:

In December 2008, the Nevada Division of Environmental Protection (NDEP) issued a public notice announcing it had received an application for a revision to the above mentioned "Class II" Air Quality Operating Permit from Bango Oil, LLC. According to NDEP records the permit revision allows new construction and revised operations at the Bango facility for processing up to 2,400 gallons/hour of used oil and recycled fuel oil. The permit also reconfigures the existing permit to reflect current operating conditions at the facility.

Following the issuance of the above referenced public notice, on January 28, 2009 NDEP held a public hearing on the permit revision in Fallon Nevada. On February 13, 2009 NDEP subsequently approved the request for the revision of the Class II Air Quality Operating Permit. Then on February 19, 2009 NDEP issued a "Notice of Response to Comments" and this notice contained specific information about the State Environmental Commission's (SEC) Appeal process. On February 20 and 27, 2009 respectively, the below referenced individuals submitted separate appeals to the SEC on the permit revision issued to Bango Oil by NDEP.

With this letter I am advising that you may seek to intervene in the appeal process concerning the above referenced permit. For your information please find attached the SEC's Rules of Practice; these rules govern disposition of contested cases including requirement for interveners.

Also attached are copies of the appeals filed by the above referenced parties. If you have any questions about this letter please contact me.

Sincerely,
